RUTH A. KNOLL THEATER

SCHAUER
ARTS CENTER

HARTFORD WISCONSIN

FROM THE Executive Director

FIRST let me say that this last season flew by incredibly fast. It seems we spend so much time negotiating, booking and waiting for the performance to come—and then, like that, it's gone. Amazing!

Thank you to everyone who supported our past season. I received countless positive comments regarding the kinds of performances we brought to the Schauer Center and we had several sold-out shows. All of this tells us we are on the right track in finding a balanced mix of the kind of performances people in our area want to see. However, we didn't want to stop there. We wanted this season to be even better; our biggest challenge yet.

With that goal in mind, we pulled out all the stops. This season is filled with platinum recording stars, TV performers, and national and international performing artists—all right here at the Schauer Arts Center.

"I hope you'll agree that 2017-18 is going to be a red hot year!

—Joe Konrad

P.S. Be sure to see the comments and reasons for my selections on all the mainstage performances

Developing, Supporting and Promoting the Arts

AS A NON-PROFIT, REGIONAL CENTER FOR THE ARTS, the Schauer Arts Center provides experiences that inspire creativity and connect people. We strive to be a vital resource that fosters, supports, and enriches the cultural, educational, and social well-being of our community.

FILLED WITH HISTORY, the Schauer Center was transformed from a canning factory built in 1919 into an architectural award-winning performing and visual arts center. Since opening in 2001, the Schauer Center presents professional touring performances in the Ruth A. Knoll Theater and regional artwork in the Suckow Family Art Gallery, and serves as a home to our resident groups: Hartford City Band, Hartford Community Chorus, The Hartford Players, and the Kettle Moraine Fine Arts Guild.

WE ARE A GATHERING PLACE where people from all walks of life achieve a sense of belonging and benefit from enjoying and participating in the arts. Our year-round School of the Arts offers music, theater, dance, and visual arts education for all ages, levels, and visions. In addition, the Schauer Center is the perfect backdrop for a variety of special occasions and business functions that can be hosted throughout our facility.

Friends of the Schauer Center

As a non-profit organization, the Schauer Center relies on the generosity of individuals and businesses to support the performance and educational opportunities we offer. Gifts from Friends of the Schauer Center enable us to educate over 16,000 students and teachers through our Schooltime Matinees, entertain over 30,000 patrons through our performing arts series, and train over 1,700 students through our School of the Arts each year. And we couldn't do it without you!

An annual contribution of just $50 makes you eligible to receive Friends benefits, such as the ability to purchase tickets before the general public, a subscription to the Schauer Marquee newsletter, and invitations to private donor events.
