CELEBRATING 25 SEASONS OF THE SCHAUER ARTS CENTER

This year marks a remarkable milestone for the Schauer Arts Center as we celebrate our 25th anniversary season! Since opening our doors in 2001, the Center has proudly served as a vibrant cultural hub for the greater Hartford community and beyond. Filled with culture and history, the Schauer Center's journey began with a bold transformation—what was once a 1912 canning factory is now a dynamic, regional non-profit arts center that continues to inspire creativity and connect people of all ages.

With each passing season, the Schauer Arts Center has brought the arts to life through a rich variety of experiences. From world-class professional touring performances in the Ruth A. Knoll Theater to stunning exhibitions of regional talent in the Suckow Family Art Gallery, we remain dedicated to developing, supporting, and promoting the arts in all their forms. Our facility also proudly serves as the creative home to beloved local organizations, including the Hartford City Band, Hartford Community Chorus, The Hartford Players, and the Kettle Moraine Fine Arts Guild.

As we reflect on the past twenty-five seasons, we celebrate the countless artists, patrons, volunteers, and community members who have helped shape our story. We are honored to be a place where people come together, find inspiration, and build lasting connections through the arts.

Looking ahead, our vision remains strong: to be a vital resource that enriches the cultural, educational, and social well-being of our community. Join us in celebrating our 25th season—a tribute to our past, a celebration of the present, and a vibrant promise for the future of the arts in our region.

Thank you for being a part of this journey!

TREASURE ISLAND: MISSOULA CHILDREN'S THEATRE

FRI, AUG 22 | 7:00 PM & SAT, AUG 23 | 2:00 PM

FAMILY
SERIES SPONSOR

The Missoula Children's Theatre takes pride in presenting Treasure Island, an original adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's epic novel. Young Jim Hawkins, a mischievous lad, lives with his mother and six sisters in a seaside village on the coast of Maine. The year is 1782, and the American Revolution is in its final days. Longing for adventure, Jim comes under the hypnotic spell of the legendary pirate, Long John Silver. While waiting tables in the family Inn, Jim finds a treasure map and, with the villainous Silver as his seeming mentor, sails uncharted seas with only the ragged map and a flock of gulls as guides. Always up for adventure, Jim's Ruffian friends say farewell to their mariner parents and serve as cabin boys for Silver and his band of hilarious (although unsavory) pirate types. Once on the island, nights are sleepless as true colors are revealed in our hero's quest for the proverbial happy ending. Then, at last, the treasure is found, and hand in hand, we're homeward bound.

bank | SERIES SPONSOR

Join paranormal researcher, author, and podcaster Amy Bruni as she takes you through an unforgettable evening of ghost stories that originated from real-life murders. Was a man truly executed based on the testimony of a ghost? Is one ghostly voice the key to finally solving the Villisca Axe Murders? Is the basement of the post office that now stands where the H.H. Holmes murder castle once was as haunted as the postal workers there would have you believe? Hear these stories and more, as Amy takes you through an evening of hauntings and the true crime mysteries surrounding them. Before she even takes the stage, peruse her small museum of haunted artifacts and spiritualist memorabilia. And at the end of the night, you get your chance to ask her anything. Like, "Can a ghost really follow you home?" amybruni.com

"We are saying what HE said," laughs Matt Vee referring to the one and only Neil Diamond. Matt along with cousins Jeff and Tommy Vee, local music scene veterans and sons of the legendary Bobby Vee, join forces with their family and friends as The Killer Vees to celebrate the music from a timeless catalog. With songs like "Cracklin' Rosie," "America," and "Sweet Caroline," Neil Diamond sold over 100 million records worldwide with music that became the soundtrack to one generation after another with hits spanning five decades. As a Tin Pan Alley song writer in the mid '60s, he penned songs recorded by everyone from Elvis Presley to Deep Purple and, of course, the Monkee's classic, "I'm A Believer."

"This is not a tribute show," says Tommy Vee. "This is a celebration of an amazing musical icon, one we all love and respect. We have been fans since we were in grade school and first learning our respective instruments and played many of these tunes over the years in various bands. We have recruited an incredible group of singers and players and have gone back to the original records," he explains, "it is all about the vocals and Matt nails it. It's a rockin' show!"

Joining The Killer Vees will be Matt's wife Julie Velline on vocals and Tommy Vee's son Bennett Vee on lead guitar along the incomparable Chris Bloniarz on keyboards, Dennis Kennedy on percussion and Richard Manik on Saxophone, flute, keyboards and vocals, as well as a very special surprise featuring local talent for the finale.

Members Of The Killer Vees have recorded or performed with: Bobby Vee, Sir Paul McCartney, Sir Tim Rice, Ronnie Wood, Mick Taylor, Eric Clapton, Brian Setzer, Chase Bryant, Little Richard, Jerry Lee Lewis, Chuck Berry, Frankie Avalon, Fabian, The Shirelles, The Chiffons, Bill Medley, Chris Montez, Brian Hyland, Johnny Tillotson, Matthew & Gunnar Nelson, Peter Noone, Bill Medley, Quinn Sullivan, Rosie Flores, Jonah Marias, The Johnny Holm Band, and many others. SHOW SPONSOR

Hailed by The Washington Post as "one of Nashville's finest song interpreters," Kathy Mattea has enjoyed much success and acclaim during her 35-year career in Country, Bluegrass and Folk music, including two GRAMMY wins, four CMA Awards, four #1 country singles, and five gold albums (plus a platinum Greatest Hits collection). Her latest album is Pretty Bird, produced by her old friend, roots music wizard Tim O'Brien. The wide-ranging collection of songs chronicles a period of rededication to singing, digging back in with a vocal coach and emerging with a poignant and eclectic CD. In addition to creating and recording music and performing live on tour, Kathy is increasingly involved with public broadcasting, consulting and contributing on screen in Ken Burns' 2019 documentary for PBS "Country Music", and recently replacing founder Larry Groce as the host of the long-running NPR show "Mountain Stage." ## WHO BROUGHT THE HUMBUG?

SAT, DECEMBER 13 | 7:00 PM

bank MAIN STAGE
SERIES SPONSOR

The show takes place at an ugly sweater party, where all the guests are joyful singers, incredible tap dancers, and high-energy musicians! The interactive fun takes off on a jolly sleigh ride of swingin' holiday mash-ups.

The party gets extra exciting when Santa Claus starts rapping to Rudolph over horn-band funk while Frosty the Snowman tap dances a groove beat, and all of the other reindeer hit powerhouse hip-hop choreography—a magical combination you have to see to believe!

Just when it can't get any more fantastic, the party comes to a hilarious halt when two singers-turned-investigators steal the show with a beatboxing version of "The Grinch!"

This is when the plot takes a turn, as the two-man investigative team reveals that someone at the party brought a "Humbug!"

The party winds its way through the 1990s in "The Ghost of Parties Past," followed by a can't-miss game of musical chairs titled "Chairol of the Bells." There's even an interactive audience dance-off that brings some unlikely guests to the stage!

Ultimately, the partygoers, the investigators, the audience members, and even the Humbug are all united in an electric, high-energy closer called "The Holiday Funk."

The show is an all-age, all-inclusive, family-friendly, fun, funky, feel-good celebration of the holiday season! rhythmstreetmovement.com

THE LOVIN' SPOONFUL

THU, FEBRUARY 5 | 7:00 PM

SERIES SPONSOR

The Lovin' Spoonful were America's answer to the Beatles! The band, led by primary songwriter John Sebastian, Steve Boone, Joe Butler, and Zal Yanovsky, exploded onto the charts, sending their first seven singles soaring onto Billboard's top 10 charts virtually overnight. The Spoonful formed in New York's Greenwich Village in 1965 at the Night Owl Café and signed to Kama Sutra Records. They appeared on every major TV show of the era: The Ed Sullivan Show, Hullabaloo, and Shindig! Their first single, "Do You Believe in Magic," flew to the top of the charts and was followed by an unprecedented string of hits including: "Daydream," "Younger Girl," "Summer in the City," "You Didn't Have to Be So Nice," "Darling Be Home Soon," "Jug Band Music," "Did You Ever Have to Make Up Your Mind," "Lovin' You," "Didn't Want to Have to Do it," "Rain on the Roof," "Six O'Clock," "Nashville Cats," "Coconut Grove," and "She's Still a Mystery (to Me)."

The band was so influential that music legends like Paul McCartney and Brian Wilson cited them as a force of inspiration, as did many others. Paul McCartney cited "Daydream" as his inspiration for "Good Day Sunshine," and even John Lennon called them "tunesmiths!"

Today, the Lovin' Spoonful tours with founding member, Steve Boone, Jeff Alan Ross (Badfinger, Peter Asher), Bill Cinque (Neil Diamond), longtime drummer Mike Arturi, and Rob Bonfiglio (The Beach Boys, Brian Wilson Band, Wilson Phillips). He is Carrie Wilson's husband and Brian Wilson's son-in-law. Together, they faithfully celebrate the rich, good-time catalog of hits that made The Lovin' Spoonful one of the world's most beloved groups to emerge from the '60s. The Lovin' Spoonful was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2000. lovinspoonful.band

LEGACY SHOW

Once upon a time there was a teenage boy working on his family farm in apartheid South Africa. The year was 1960. This boy loved to sing, in fact he loved to sing so much that he allowed himself an impossible dream. In his dream he would create a group of singers, from his family members, to sing traditional South African songs. His group would perform all over South Africa and they would become the greatest music group his country would ever know. How could such a dream come to a young farm boy in a country rife with hardship, violence and trouble? Well, Joseph Shabalala was this young farm boy and his dream would become Ladysmith Black Mambazo.

The year 2025 marks the 65th anniversary of Joseph Shabalala forming Ladysmith Black Mambazo. His group would not only conquer all of South Africa, but would become a worldwide phenomenon, winning more GRAMMY Awards (five), and receiving more GRAMMY Award nominations (nineteen), than any World Music group in the history of recorded music. The year is 1963 and C.S. Lewis, the famous British author, is hosting a group of American writers at his home near Oxford. They are about to experience a captivating evening with a man whose engaging conversation and spontaneous humor made him one of the great raconteurs of his day.

Seated in his living room and he recalls the people and events that inspired his thought and shaped his life; of his friendship with J.R.R. Tolkien; why he nearly abandoned the Narnia Chronicles; how he came to embrace Christianity and of the American woman who turned his life upside down.

Described by critics as ‘Extraordinary!’ ‘A Must See!’ ‘A Master Class!’ An Evening with C.S. Lewis has proved again and again to be an enthralling theatrical experience and one which has led many thousands to discover (or rediscover) the continuing impact of a man who died over 50 years ago and whose collected works made him one of the literary giants of the 20th Century. # THE GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA

MAIN STAGE

Glenn Miller and his orchestra made a big impact right before and during the war. And it had more hit records in one year than anybody in the history of the recording industry. In fact, its recording of "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" earned the first Gold Record ever awarded to a performing artist. Additional Gold Record recordings include "In the Digital Mood" and "In The Christmas Mood," Volume I & II.

Back in the days of the big band era of the forties, any dance band "worth its salt" had a distinctive theme song. It was the musical signature with which they signed on and signed off at their engagements and radio broadcasts. The theme of Glenn Miller and his orchestra was the beautiful "Moonlight Serenade," and it is still the signature tune of the Glenn Miller Orchestra today. Interestingly enough, Glenn Miller originally wrote the music of the song himself as an exercise for a course in arranging. He composed it long before he organized his band, when he was a trombonist and arranger with Ray Noble's famous band.

It is now more than 80 years since Glenn Miller first succeeded with the orchestra, which still bears his name to this day. Except for a few years following his disappearance, Glenn's orchestra and music have been heard around the world continuously since 1938. glennmillerorchestra.com

The Electric Light Orchestra Experience is a multimedia concert celebration of the music of Jeff Lynne's ELO.

Featuring Evil Woman, a twelve-piece band complete with violins, viola, cello co-existing with electric guitars, classic rock intersects with pop...just as Jeff Lynne intended.

This production includes unique video content for each song as the fusion of Beatlesque-pop and classical arrangements performed by Evil Woman's twelve musicians, including a live string section, is brought to life.

The attention to detail on vocal harmonies and string arrangements is astonishingly similar to all of ELO's original recordings.

"Mr. Blue Sky," "Telephone Line," "Don't Bring Me Down," "Livin' Thing," "Evil Woman," and "Roll Over Beethoven" are among a list of over twenty instantly recognizable chart-topping hit songs.
